Protouch Golf Academy, operating at the Tollygunge Club in Kolkata, is one of India's leading golf academies, blending modern coaching facilities with a strong focus on nurturing young talent. The academy offers advanced training support, including 3D swing analysis, launch monitor assessments for club and ball data, video analysis, putting analysis with an indoor putting studio, and a comprehensive sports-science wing covering fitness, nutrition, and psychological coaching – a rare combination in eastern India.

The academy is led by veteran golfer and coach Indrajit Bhalotia, a former national-level player, five-time PGA title winner, and an experienced trainer of both junior and professional golfers. Under his leadership, Protouch at Tollygunge Club continues to make golf more accessible while maintaining exceptional training standards and shaping the next generation of golfers.

In 2011 and 2013, The Tollygunge Club entrusted us with installing Tiger Putt – a world-class practice surface designed to enhance putting skills. Over the years, it has withstood monsoons, intense heat, and heavy usage. Fast forward to 2025: as the Club planned a major renovation, one thing remained non-negotiable for its golfers – Tiger Putt had to stay. And so, history repeated itself.

Mr. Bhalotia was extremely pleased with our work and even recorded two testimonial videos for the two putting areas, praising Tiger Putt for its performance, consistency, and longevity, qualities that truly set it apart.

We simply call it the love of the sport.
